

High School Teacher | Full-Time

Chesterton Academy, a joyfully Catholic, classical high school, seeks talented and dynamic full-time math, science, latin, and history teachers to join our team starting in the 2024-25 academic year. Part time options may also be available.

A bachelor's or master's degree in their respective field is required, with previous experience teaching the subject:

Geometry (including Euclidean Geometry), Algebra I
Chemistry, Astronomy/Introductory Physics
Latin (Henle) I, II, III
Ancient History, Medieval History, American History.

Three to five years of teaching experience is preferred, as well as experience in and passion for Catholic classical education.

The candidate must be a practicing Catholic and willing to take the Oath of Fidelity to the Magisterium. Candidates must demonstrate excellent organizational, written and verbal communication skills, and possess a track record of contributing to the vision and mission of an apostolic and educational enterprise.

In addition to their teaching responsibilities, faculty at Chesterton Academy participate in the House system, which is designed to promote character and virtue, and to help students grow in holiness. Faculty members are required to attend daily Mass with the entire student body, and assist in leading spiritual retreats and school activities.

Interested candidates should submit a cover letter, resume, and three to five references to office@chestertonacademy.org

About Chesterton Academy of the Incarnation

Founded in 2022 as a result of a grass-roots movement of parents, Chesterton Academy of the Incarnation offers a rigorous, integrated high school curriculum centered on the Incarnation of Jesus Christ. Focusing on the classics, the school develops complete thinkers who learn to draw on faith and reason for the purpose of building a culture of life.
