Job Description: Part-Time High School Math (Calculus)

Position: Part-Time Teacher

Location: Chesterton Academy of the Incarnation, Franklin TN

Overview:

Chesterton Academy of the Incarnation is seeking a passionate and dedicated part-time high school teacher for the 2026-2027 academic year to teach five 45-minute periods of Calculus each week from August 2026 through May 2027. Hours and days of teaching are flexible and rate is competitive. The ideal candidate will have an appropriate degree or demonstrated college coursework, background teaching at the high school level, a dedication to the Catholic faith in their daily lives, and a commitment to fostering a love of learning in a classical education environment.

Key Responsibilities:

- Develop and implement engaging lesson plans that adhere to the Chesterton curriculum.
- Instruct students effectively and engagingly.
- Assess student performance through assignments, tests, and projects, providing constructive feedback to support their growth.
- Collaborate with fellow faculty members to create a cohesive and enriching educational experience.
- Participate in occasional all-faculty meetings
- Assist with infrequent after-school activities related to classes taught, where appropriate

Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree in Math or related field or evidence of appropriate college course work
- Prior high school teaching experience is preferred but not required.
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills.
- Commitment to the mission and values of Chesterton Academy.
- The candidate must be a practicing Catholic and willing to take the Oath of Fidelity to the Magisterium.

Application Process:

Interested candidates should submit a resume, cover letter, and transcripts (college and post-graduate) to info@chestertontn.com.

About:

Founded in Franklin, Tennessee in 2021 through a grass-roots movement of parents, Chesterton Academy of the Incarnation offers an integrated classical high school curriculum centered on the Incarnation of Jesus Christ. Focusing on the classic works across all disciplines, the school develops complete thinkers whose depth of knowledge and reasoning skills make them capable of bringing their faith into the world to build up the culture of life. Chesterton Academy of the Incarnation is a member school of the Chesterton Schools Network.